Review

The Moon: as goddess, as science, as inspiration for poetry almost everything you could want to know about the moon in a beautifully crafted book. Donna Henes' lovely work will have an honored place near the altar and near the telescope. --Margot Adler, author of Drawing Down the Moon

Enjoy this fascinating read, and give it to everyone you know who loves the moon. --Spirituality & Health Magazine

Moonwatcher's Companion is a great choice for a gift or for oneself, because human beings today are fascinated by the moon much as the ancients were. The solitary figure contemplating a huge crescent moon on the book's gorgeous, attention-grabbing cover could be any of us. I recommend Moonwatcher's Companion to people of any age who have a telescope or an interest in science or ceremony, or who simply want to increase awareness of their relationship to the moon. --New Age Retailer
