Review

'This book is an enormous and impressive work on the development of global outsourcing strategies in the electronic industry, and offers a well balanced mix of practical and theoretical discourse on the topic. The book is suited primarily for practitioners and MBA students to learn about the extent and evolution of outsourcing arrangements as well as major players in the industry. For academics, the in-depth analysis of those major players in the industry adds realism to their conceptual understanding.' --Masaaki Kotabe, Temple University, US

'The electronics industry is one of the most interesting arenas to study new trends in competition, globalisation, and outsourcing. In this book Lucio Cassia provides a very detailed and insightful analysis of this industry, with plenty of empirical data to support his points. Anyone with an academic or practitioner interest in the topic will be able to take away key messages through this study of the evolution of global outsourcing in electronics.' --Michael Mol, Warwick Business School, UK
