From the Author

This is the first book in the series, the second being Shadow Moon, and the third yet to be finished Dragon's Fire is coming soon. This was my first book, and experience writing to tell a story for no one other than myself. It was the reason that I have continued writing, because I can't imagine doing anything else.

About the Author

I was born and raised in Texas, and adopted by two wonderful parents. My imagination has always been there for me, in the best and worse times in my life. Writing is the passion that I have been searching for for all these years, and it has been the most fun that I have had on any project I have ever done. My wife Christine is a constant source of encouragement, and light in my life to help make this all happen.
