Review

‘This is a great book that fills many gaps in the existing textbook options, including rich material coming out of the RCT revolution, while sustaining depth on the classic questions in development.’ ? Samuel Bazzi, Professor of Economics at Boston University, USA.

‘Overall, I strongly recommend using this textbook for economic development. It is rich with material, examples, and case studies. It includes extensive discussions on data and studies using the randomized control trial approach, which is widely used in development research nowadays.’ ? Rotua Lumbantobing, assistant professor of economics at Western Connecticut State University, USA
