Review

"This work is 'essential,' in part, because it is the only handbook on this important and perennial women's studies topic. Each of the two volumes in the set addresses several topical areas that illustrate the complexity of women's sexuality and the contextual nature of that experience." - Feminist Collections

"This scholarly work is solidly based on research, and each chapter is heavily referenced. The book captures the tremendous expansion of research on women's issues over the past 30 years. This is an excellent resource for anyone seeking a broad understanding of women's sexuality. The range of topics ensures that even the most knowledgeable expert will discover new information. Summing Up: Highly recommended." - Choice
