Review

'Assured yet modest; tolerant, yet affirmative of his own values; capable of gentle but firm critical rebuke to perpetrators of illogicality and confusion; generous in seeking out what is of worth where it can be found, but impatient of silliness and pretentiousness; fresh and original in argument yet never freakish or exhibitionist; all this can be said of these essays and of the personality that can be discerned behind them.' David Daiches, The Times Higher Education Supplement

'This splendid collection of essays ...' The Times Higher Education Supplement

'... it's good to find the commonsense tradition still in such good heart.' The Listener
